

Fall Hazard Survey

Review all working areas and identify all working platforms that are four or more feet from the ground, floor or adjacent working platform. Then, identify the specific type of fall protection to be incorporated. Identify the department and the specific area within the department as well as machine number.

Department	Area	Machine #	Platform Height	Recommended Protection